

Member Guide
2022

Congratulations for joining the West Shore Marching Band! You are part of a top-notch organization; YOU ARE THE WEST SHORE MARCHING BAND! By earning the privilege of being in the marching band, you are tasked with upholding a positive image that the band holds. You are the image of the band. The following guidelines and standards of behavior are in place to foster the development of the West Shore Marching Band Legacy.

The West Shore marching staff and school administration have established the following requirements for participation in the marching band program. Anything that is not specifically addressed within these guidelines will be considered under “GOOD JUDGMENT” and/or “COMMON SENSE.” The West Shore Marching Band is regarded as a first-class organization. We will continue to maintain this tradition.

A. ATTENDANCE - As marching band is a group activity, it is imperative that every member be present. No rehearsal, competition, parade, football game, concert, performance or affiliated event may be missed. If an emergency arises, it is the responsibility of the student to communicate any uncontrollable absences as early as possible.

1. Any excused absence must be communicated to, and addressed with, your caption head on staff at least two weeks prior (except illnesses) to the absence.
2. The following is a complete list of excused absences:
 - a. Personal Illness - Documentation for the absence by parent or doctor is required and must be turned into the Band Director.
 - b. A wedding in the Family - Weddings of friends, neighbors etc. are not excused. Absences due to weddings must be communicated well in advance.
 - c. A death in the family
 - d. Your participation in sports in compliance with category “D”
 - e. “Emergencies” not mentioned will be handled on an individual basis with the Band Director or appropriate staff member.
3. Many members also hold down a job, however work is not an acceptable reason for absence. Use the calendar and communicate with your boss well in advance.
4. Homework/school projects are not acceptable excuses for absence. Manage your time and workload to complete assignments before or on the assigned due dates. NO EXCEPTIONS. By the same token, do not use marching band as an excuse for incomplete assignments. Use a calendar and prioritize your time.
5. Any unexcused absence will result in your losing performance privileges at the next competition or event.

B. HIGH SCHOOLS SPORTS CONFLICTS – Club/community sports conflicts are not an acceptable excuse.

1. Inform appropriate staff of involvement and potential conflicts as early as possible.

2. It is important for you, the member, to approach both commitments equally. Directors/coaches will take care to help you prioritize games/performances and balance the commitment to both organizations.
3. Communication with all parties, initiated by the member, is key.
4. Report to rehearsal following the return to the school after a “reasonable” amount of time to eat. Going home between events is not acceptable. Arranging for dinner to be brought to the school is recommended.

C. TARDINESS – Chronic tardiness is unprofessional.

TO BE EARLY IS TO BE “ON TIME,”
TO BE ON TIME IS TO BE “LATE,”
TO BE LATE IS “INEXCUSABLE.”

D. PRE-SEASON WINTER SPORTS AND ACTIVITIES - The marching band program precludes all pre winter season activities or sports events, i.e. “open gyms.”

E. INSTRUMENTS/EQUIPMENT

1. All instruments/equipment must be put away, in the specific proper storage spot, after each rehearsal. No one in your section is excused from rehearsal until this job is completed. Taking care of your own responsibility is priority, but helping others with theirs is also encouraged. Many hands make light work.
2. All instruments must be maintained in top playing condition.
3. School instruments should be treated as though they are your own.

Winds

- a. All cases should be clearly marked with your name, address and phone number.
- b. Instrument repair personnel visit the school weekly. The vendors that serve the WSSD must repair all school instruments.
- c. It is strongly encouraged that those vendors recommended by the band director service personal instruments.
- d. Any accessories such as reeds, valve oil, etc. will be the responsibility of the student. The band director does not maintain an emergency supply.

F. REHEARSAL PROCEDURES / ETIQUETTE:

1. Members are expected to possess and maintain a 3-ring binder. Fill the binder with plastic sheet protectors in which to keep music, drill, and any other pertinent documents. Keep the binder up to date and bring it to every rehearsal.
2. Only play your instrument when asked to do so.
3. Do not talk while staff is giving information/directions. Keep other talking minimal and subject-related.
